

Put It Together

15 You can compare the size of a product to the size of the factors in a multiplication sentence if you know whether the factors are greater than, less than, or equal to 1.

A Write a multiplication sentence (different from one in this lesson) where the product is greater than both of the factors. Draw a model to support your answer.
